Membership in the Association for the Development of the Person-Centered Approach

ADPCA is an international network of persons who support the development and application of the person-centered approach. ADPCA is an association that seeks to further a pioneering spirit and vision of what person can become.

Functions of ADPCA:

The Association is an interdisciplinary and international network which welcomes the participation of educators, psychologists, nurses, social workers, health service providers, pastoral counselors, psychiatrists, psychotherapists, counselors, marriage and family therapists, organization development specialists, and other professional and lay persons involved in the field of human relations, and personal and interpersonal development.

Its current FUNCTIONS include:

- Sponsorship of an annual meeting which includes activities that are experiential, theoretical, and practical (business meetings).
- Publication of a quarterly newsletter, RENAISSANCE.
- Publication of the PERSON-CENTERED JOURNAL, presently being published twice a year.
- Publication of an annual membership directory.
- Dissemination of information about other person-centered activities and organizations throughout the world.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS include:

- Subscription to the PERSON-CENTERED JOURNAL.
- Subscription to the quarterly Association newsletter, RENAISSANCE.
- Listing in and a copy of the Association Membership Directory.
- An Annual Meeting for interaction, dialogue, and didactics.
